GETTING THERE

AIR

Both Qantas and Virgin Australia fly to Uluṟu (Ayers Rock Airport).

Fly direct from Sydney, Cairns and Alice Springs to Ayers Rock Airport. Flights from Brisbane connect through Sydney to Ayers Rock Airport. Flights from Melbourne, Darwin and Adelaide connect from Sydney or Alice Springs through to Ayers Rock Airport.

Ayers Rock Airport is located just six kilometres from Ayers Rock Resort (10 minutes travel). In addition to its commercial passengers, the airport is a popular stop-off point for private pilots and passengers travelling in their own aircraft.

AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Complimentary return coach transfers from Ayers Rock Airport to Ayers Rock Resort hotels meet every scheduled flight. The return transfer to Ayers Rock Airport collects you from your hotel approximately 2 hours prior to flight departure, please check with reception for exact time. For Longitude 131˚ guests, a complimentary 4WD transfer will pick you up from Ayers Rock Airport and take you back for your return flight.

SELF DRIVE

A great way to explore Central Australia is at your own pace. Hertz, Thrifty and Avis car rentals are available at Ayers Rock Resort. You can choose from a range of vehicles including 4WDs or standard sedan options. Pre-book your car hire with the Voyages Travel Centre to avoid disappointment.

COACH TRANSFERS

Coach transfers are available and operate services between Ayers Rock Resort, Kings Canyon and Alice Springs. Travel by luxury air-conditioned coach through beautiful desert landscapes. Your driver or guide will provide comprehensive commentary as you pass through the beautiful rugged scenery of the outback. Coach bookings can be made through the Voyages Travel Centre.
