Mulgara Gallery

Mulgara Gallery opens a window into the unique world of Australian and Indigenous arts and crafts. Located in the foyer of Sails in the Desert, Mulgara Gallery offers a superb selection of original handcrafted glassware, pottery, textiles, metal and leatherwork. The gallery showcases a range of Central Australian Indigenous art representing the many different regional styles.

Wintjiri Arts & Museum

Located adjacent to Desert Gardens Hotel, this Indigenous art gallery exhibits the works of our 'Artists in Residence'. The retail area showcases local Anangu products including designs for exclusive jewellery, bush medicine and foods. The museum also provides an insight into local and resort history, geology, flora, fauna and Aboriginal culture.

Mingkiri Arts

Located at Desert Gardens Hotel, Mingkiri Arts offers an extensive selection of Australian hand crafted glassware, jewellery, pottery, zebra rock and Central Australian Indigenous artworks. A further selection of Indigenous artwork can be found at Arnguli restaurant's revolving art exhibition space.

Artists in Residence

This highly successful program selects Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australian artists and craftspeople to take up residence for a month at a time to create art pieces in situ, exhibit and sell their work. Locations: Wintjiri Arts & Museum and Mingkiri Arts.

Sounds of Silence

The Sounds of Silence experience begins with canapés and chilled sparkling wine served on a viewing platform overlooking the Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. As the sun sets and darkness falls, listen to the sound of a didgeridoo and join your table for an unforgettable dining experience under the outback sky. Operates nightly, year round.

Tali Wiru

'Tali Wiru', meaning beautiful dune in local Anangu language, encapsulates the magic of fine dining under the Southern Desert sky. This open-air restaurant has magnificent views of Uluru and the distant domes of Kata Tjuta (The Olgas). This unique dining experience caters to no more than 20 guests in one seating. Operates nightly 1 April-15 October.
